

A children's storybook from Douglas Street!

Carolivia Herron, niece of Douglas Street historian and gardener Richard Johnson, has published the first of her Catalpa Tales, a series of stories about Douglas Street as told by her mother, Georgia Herron. Pick up this wonderful children's book, Little Georgia and the Apples , and enjoy hearing about the community and families of Douglas Street. Carolivia is also the author of Nappy Hair , a book whose narrator is based on the character of Mr. Richard Johnson. Learn more about her at her website, www.carolivia.org .

Carolivia Herron, niece of famed Douglas Street historian and gardener Richard Johnson, has published the first of her Catalpa Tales, a series of stories about Douglas Street as told by her mother, Georgia Herron. Pick up this wonderful children's book, Little Georgia and the Apples , and enjoy hearing about the community and families of Douglas Street. Carolivia is also the author of Nappy Hair , a book whose narrator is based on the character of Mr. Richard Johnson. Learn more about her at her website, www.carolivia.org .